From the Silence

Lyrics by Gerald Pearson of the San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus.

Surely, surely, from the silence,
Breaks the song that we never sang,
Come the words that we never spoke,
The love that we've always hidden.

Once all men feared so to say it,
The love that dare not speak its name.
At last, long last from the silence
Lovers come bringing gifts of song.

Voices sing of manly love.
No more will we hush the singing,
Never more will we hide our love.
No more will our joy be silenced.

Manly love has its melody.
Lovers too have a song to sing.
