The San Francisco Band Foundation will begin its tenth year of community service through performing arts when The San Francisco Gay Freedom Day Marching Band, Twirling Corps and Flag Corps step off next June for the Gay Freedom Day Parade. Since its founding by Jon R. Sims, the foundation has grown into a multi-talented performing arts organization including The San Francisco Tap Troupe, City Swing and The Vocal Minority.

During 1986 The Foundation finally achieved a long desired dream and moved into a home of its own. The Jon Sims Center for the Performing Arts at 1519 Mission Street, provides a place for lesbian and gay artists to express themselves and develop their talents. This year performing units of the foundation represented San Francisco in San Diego's Gay Pride Parade, Dallas' Freedom Day Celebration and in Vancouver at Expo. The Foundation has performed this year in Davies Symphony Hall, The Palace of Fine Arts, The Venetian Room and The Galleria Design Center. The Band, Twirlers and Flag Corps have been consistent first place winners at parades around the bay area and the foundation has given countless hours of its time and its talents to many charitable events throughout 1986.

The Foundation would like to invite you to become a member of our organization. By supporting gay and lesbian performing arts in San Francisco you will help bring a message of pride and let the greater community see that our community is alive with talent.

Please join us and help Keep Music Alive in 1987.

Each category of membership carries with it special thank you gifts from the Foundation such as concert tapes, concert tickets and the dedication of one of our "Steps To The Foundation" in your name. Please call us, 621-5619 for specific information.
