The San Francisco Band Foundation

The San Francisco Band Foundation will celebrate its tenth year of community service through performing arts in 1988. The Foundation is a non-profit performing arts organization dedicated to the support of music and other performing arts in San Francisco's lesbian and gay community.

Since its founding by Jon R. Sims, the San Francisco Gay Freedom Day Marching Band, Twirling Corps and Flag Corps have grown into a multi-talented performance organization - The San Francisco Band Foundation. The Band, Twirlers, Flag Corps, the San Francisco Tap Troupe, City Swing, Vocal Minority, and the Aides de Camp together perform more than 100 times per year. These performing units have brought their talent to countless charitable organizations and events over the years.

The Band Foundation's performing units have appeared at Louise M. Davies Symphony Hall, Moscone Center, the Mark Hopkins Hotel, Herbst Theatre, the rotunda of City Hall, the Galleria and the Gift Center Pavilion. The Band, Twirlers and Flag Corps are consistent first place winners at many parades around the Bay Area, including the St. Patrick's Day Parade and the Chinese New Year's Parade. City Swing and the Tap Troupe combine each month for tea dances at the Trocadero and represented the city at Expo '86 in Vancouver last year. Vocal Minority is in the midst of performing Big on Broadway, another of their critically acclaimed shows.

As a member of the Lesbian and Gay Bands of America, several units of the Foundation will travel to Washington, DC, in October to join 20 other lesbian and gay performing organizations for a concert in Constitution Hall.

With only one part-time staff member, all this is achieved by the volunteers of the Foundation. Last year the Foundation realized its dream of a home of its own. The Jon Sims Center for the Performing Arts provides a place for artists in the community to grow and thrive.

What a joy it is to once again experience the unity-in-diversity that is such a special attribute of the local performing community.

We are delighted to note the number of "Gold Award" nominees and winners participating in tonight's gala event.

Congratulations on what is sure to be another outstanding evening.

"Break a leg!"
