About our Fabulous Emcee!

Trauma Flintstone (néé Anderthal) is a San Francisco-based performance artist, musician, composer and cabaret singer. Since moving to San Francisco in 1988, Trauma has appeared at almost every venue in San Francisco as well as street fairs, festivals and public ceremonies.

For ten years, she appeared in the cult classic "Christmas with the Crawfords" in both San Francisco and New York, as well as multiple versions of "Jungle Red," "The Andrews Sisters' Hollywood Canteen" and "Dirty Little Show Tunes!" She also chewed up the scenery in NCTC's "When Pigs Fly," "Whoop-dee-Doo" and as Miss Texas in "Pageant." In 2006, she was sainted by the Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence and in 2007, she was an Honorary Grand Marshall for SF Pride. She is a self-avowed 'band hag' and supporter of the SFLGFB, having appeared numerous times in the Dance-Along Nutcracker®.

Special Guests

Commander Zoe Dunning

Annual Pride Concert Recognition Award Recipient

Commander Dunning, who was an invited guest at President Barack Obama's signing of the repeal of DADT in December of 2010, served as an openly gay member of the U.S. military for over 13 years before her retirement in 2007. In January 1993, while a Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy Reserves, Dunning publicly came out as a lesbian at a political rally outside the gates of California's Moffett Field. Dunning won her subsequent two-and-a-half year legal battle to remain in the Navy Reserves. The Navy promoted her twice and awarded her the Navy & Marine Corps Achievement Medal and the Navy & Marine Corps Commendation Medal since her coming out. She is Board Co-chair and a founding board member of the Servicemembers Legal Defense Network, a legal advocacy non-profit committed to ending Don't Ask, Don't Tell and ensuring LGBTQ people receive equal treatment and opportunity in all branches of the military forces. She serves on Senator Barbara Boxer's Service Academy Selection Committee.

Alexander Hamilton Post 448

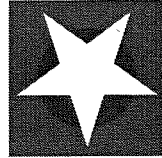

The Alexander Hamilton Post 448 of the American Legion is the only post whose membership is predominantly Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgendered. All of their Legionnaires are honorably discharged veterans who have successfully served in the United States Armed Forces during a period when our nation was in conflict as defined by the Department of Defense. Organized in 1984, Post 448 is recognized locally, statewide and nationally for its activism pertaining to the welfare of all veterans and, especially, their efforts to end the present homophobic discrimination in the United States Military.

Daniel Canosa

Artistic Director/Conductor

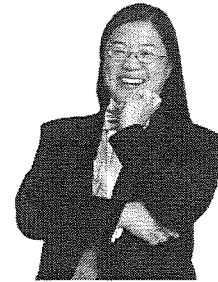

With a repertoire of symphonic and choral masterworks of all periods, Argentina-born conductor Daniel Canosa, considered one of the best of his generation, has led orchestras in Argentina, the US, and Europe. He studied orchestral conducting and composition at Argentine Catholic University and Universidad Nacional de La Plata. He studied Baroque repertoire under Argentine maestro Sergio Siminovich in Buenos Aires and conductor Nicholas McGegan in Berkeley, CA. Since 1990, Mr. Canosa has been Associate Conductor of the Apollo Symphony Orchestra and Music Director of the Apollo Baroque Orchestra, both in California. He has also been the Music Director of the Nieuw Amsterdam Barokorkest en Koor in the Netherlands, and a regular guest conductor with the Camilla Symphony Orchestra, Auburn Symphony, Veridian Symphony and San Francisco Concerto Orchestra among others.

San Francisco Lesbian/Gay Freedom Band

Jadine Louie

Artistic Director/
Conductor

The San Francisco Lesbian/Gay Freedom Band wishes you a fabulous Pride Weekend 2011!

Named the "official band of the City of San Francisco," the Freedom Band is the world's first openly gay music organization, inspiring the formation of lesbian and gay bands, choruses, and performing troupes around the world. Founded in 1978 by Jon Sims at the height of Anita Bryant's anti-gay crusade, the Band debuted marching behind Supervisor Harvey Milk's convertible in the San Francisco Gay Freedom Day Parade and has been making music to build understanding among people of all sexual orientations and identities ever since!

Lesbian/Gay Chorus of San Francisco

William Sauerland
Artistic and
Music Director

Welcome to the 2011 Pride Concert! The Lesbian/Gay Chorus of San Francisco is delighted to be co-producing this concert once again. Our repertoire includes a smattering of American music from Cole Porter and George Cohan to Lady Gaga and a world premiere by Bay Area composer June Bonacich. We hope that these songs will cause you to tap your toe, raise your voice, and feel great Pride in our community. Enjoy the concert and all the San Francisco Pride events!

Reflecting the gender and sexual diversity of our city, the Lesbian/Gay Chorus of San Francisco educates and inspires the greater community to live authentically through music and laughter. LGCSF demonstrates its commitment to authenticity, musical excellence, social harmony, community service, inclusion and accessibility, and laughter by producing and performing music of various genres at paid concerts and free outreach events.

The Golden Gate Men's Chorus

Joseph Piazza
Music Director

ABOUT GGMC: The Golden Gate Men's Chorus (GGMC) is a select group of men representing the ethnic and social diversity of San Francisco, who share a common appreciation of choral music. The GGMC presents spring, summer, and winter programs annually, in addition to guest and community benefit performances throughout the year.

MISSION: The GGMC is committed to excellence and joyous music-making; providing a supportive and nurturing atmosphere for our members' artistic and social self-expression; and sharing and expanding the rich and continuing tradition of male choral music.

MEMBERSHIP & AUDITIONS: Membership in GGMC is by audition only, and the Musical Director has set a limit of 50 voices in the group. After successfully auditioning, potential members have a brief probationary period during which the Chorus evaluates the potential members' ability to harmonize, both musically and socially, with the group. Successful members are ultimately approved by the GGMC Board of Directors. The Musical Director conducts auditions twice each year, generally in January and September. Individuals are expected to sing a prepared piece and are tested for sight-reading, tonal memory, range, and rudimentary music theory.
